

GCLPA Junior Points Guidelines

Exhibitors must meet the following criteria:

- Exhibitor's must be an active Georgia 4-H or FFA member and must meet state requirements, as well as local school, chapter or club regulations.
- An exhibitor cannot have completed high school.
- Anyone failing to comply with any rules of the State Junior Livestock Show will forfeit eligibility to participate in this program.

Shows must meet the following criteria:

- Eligible shows must be open to the entire state. The eligible shows will be listed on the GCLPA website.
- Shows must be posted on the GCLPA website prior to show for promotion.
- Shows must be held in the state of Georgia to be eligible for this points program.
- Classes/Shows must be market in nature, so as to not exclude any Georgia lambs from class eligibility. Therefore, Breeding Ewe classes/shows are NOT eligible.
- Show secretary or superintendent must agree to send an official copy of the show program and results to GCLPA.

The following guidelines should be used to calculate the GCLPA Top Ten Points:

- ✓ You (the exhibitor) will be responsible for calculating and keep your points for each show.
- ✓ Use the GCLPA Scoring System Chart, on the website www.GCLPA.com.
- ✓ At the end of the show year, you will need to pick ONE Georgia LAMB that has the highest total points for FOUR shows. ONLY POINTS FROM YOUR BEST Georgia LAMB WILL BE COUNTED.
- ✓ Any points earned from the GCLPA Futurity are DOUBLED for points consideration!!!
- ✓ Total your SHOWMANSHIP points for FOUR shows.
- ✓ Add the total points for the best lamb to the showmanship points. This equals your total points for the year.

Examples of past shows that were eligible for points calculations (not inclusive list):

- Atlantic Coast Classic – Sylvania, GA
- West Georgia Lamb Classic – Carrollton, GA
- Farm Credit – Perry, GA
- GCLPA Futurity (points doubled for this show) – Perry, GA
- UGA Block & Bridle – Athens, GA
- Southeast Empire (Gwinnett Co. Fair) – Lawrenceville, GA
- Georgia National Fair (State Show) – Perry, GA

The GCLPA officers and/or directors will review the tally sheet for correctness after submittal. Corrections will be made to mathematical errors.

GCLPA Junior Points Guidelines

All decisions are final unless an official grievance is filled in writing to the GCLPA Board of Directors within 30 days of incident. At which time, the board will prepare a response within 30 days of receipt.
